Patients at high risk for tissue breakdown
Who meet the criteria requiring a specialty support surface

Able/willing to turn self

Weight 250 lbs or less

Multiple pressure ulcers, flaps, grafts or burns

Yes

Weight 250 lbs or less

No

No

Refer to Bariatric Beds decision tree

Physician request for Sand/Clinitron Bed

Yes

First Step Plus
Max weight 250 lbs

Indications:
- Low air loss
- Prevention of pressure ulcers
- Treatment of Stage I & II pressure ulcers in patients at risk for further breakdown
- Treatment of Stage III & IV pressure ulcers in patients not at risk for further breakdown
- Pain management

First Step All-In-One
Max weight 400 lbs

Indications:
- Low air loss/Pulsation/Turning
- Existing skin breakdown, and high risk of additional breakdown
- Pulsation for enhanced capillary circulation
- Turning for patients unable to position self, need frequent turning

KinAir MedSurg
Max weight 300 lbs

Indications:
- Low air loss
- Prevention of pressure ulcers in high risk patients
- Treatment of existing pressure ulcers
- Flaps and Grafts
- Burns
*Available with Pulsation Therapy

Hill-Rom Clinitron Rite-Hite
Air Fluidized Bed

Indications:
- Stage III or IV pressure ulcers or multiple ulcers
- Treatment of existing pressure ulcers
- Flaps and Grafts
- Burns